

Technical Assistants for Medical Device Technology

Establishments for practical training

Hospitals
Manufacturers of medical devices and facilities
Dealers specialising in medical devices
Renting agents for home care medical devices
Health services (Red Cross etc.)

Tasks and operations

Technical Assistants for Medical Device Technology:

- Assisting in the planning, development and manufacturing of new medical devices and facilities,
- Cooperation in installing, operation and maintenance of medical devices and facilities,
- Troubleshooting and repairing medical device malfunctions,
- Informing users about eventual handling errors,
- Performing functional tests and security checks on medical devices including the legal
- documentation of the process,
- Securing data transmission for diagnosis and therapy

For further information please contact us via E-Mail: europa@oszimt.de

(Source: <http://www.bibb.de/de/index.htm>, Federal Institute for Vocational Education and Training)